EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PROCEDURES

INCLEMENT WEATHER

Announcements of college closures will be made on local TV, social media sites, and the mobile communication app. If you live outside of the area and weather conditions are more severe, use your own judgment as to whether or not you can make it to class. It is your responsibility to notify the college if you feel that you cannot attend class that day.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION PLAN

In the event of an emergency situation, immediately dial 911.

Central Oklahoma College will, without delay, determine the content of the emergency and initiate the notification system, unless the notification will in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist victims or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

Exterior assembly areas, used when the building must be partially or completely evacuated, are located in parking lots or other open areas away from busy streets. We have designated assembly areas so that all involved will be safely out of emergency personnel's way. The parking lots located north and east of the building are a designated meeting place for students, faculty, staff and visitors.

All individuals must wait for instructions from the emergency personnel. Do not re-enter the building until you are told it is safe and given an ALL CLEAR from the appropriate personnel.

ALARMS

The fire alarm system is automatically activated through the PSI security system. Evacuation is required anytime the fire alarm system sounds. The fire alarm can also be activated by manually pushing the button for fire on the alarm key pad located near the main college entrance. Emergency evacuation diagrams are posted in each classroom, break room, LRC, and major areas of the campus.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS

Are located in the 100 building in the Lobby, in the Student Break Room, and by the restrooms. In the 200 building, the fire extinguisher is located in the lobby.

FIRST AID KIT

For minor injuries not requiring medical attention a first aid kit is located in the Dispensary and most classroom labs.

It is the obligation of each individual to observe safety regulations, use safety equipment (as applicable), follow sanitation and safety procedures, and to practice safety measures at all times. Central Oklahoma College has established policies and procedures in place for the collection of campus crime information to comply with the Jeanne Cleary Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Crime Statistics Act and in accordance with the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA). The Cleary Act requires that institutions disclose institutional safety and security policies, along with statistics for offenses committed on campus. The information is a compilation of data disclosed each year for the previous three calendar years. Statistics for all schools nationwide are made available to the public by the Department of Education's website located at <http://ope.ed.gov/security>. Since crime can occur anywhere and at any time, it is our sincere hope that you will read this policy and follow the included guidelines. If you suspect a crime has been committed, notify the President, Campus Director, or immediate supervisor. If you witness a crime in progress, call 911 to alert local law enforcement agencies, and then notify the Campus Director or supervisor.

All employees are provided with an employee handbook, which includes school policies and procedures. All employees are reminded about security procedures during Staff/Faculty Meetings, In-Service and as issues arise.

While the College employs electronic security systems, there is no such thing as a fail-safe security system. Even the most elaborate security precautions are not a guarantee against crime. The best safety measures are the ones you perform using common sense. You should always remain alert and aware of your surroundings. Secure your vehicles and do not leave valuables in your car. Do not leave your personal items unattended. Avoid walking alone, particularly at night. A campus community must do more than just react to crime; it must look for opportunities to deter crime.

Central Oklahoma College does not employ a police or security force on campus, and thus does not maintain a "Crime Log". Hence, such a log is not available for public inspection. Central Oklahoma College does not maintain dormitories or other student housing facilities, and hence does not have a policy regarding the disappearance of students in-residence (missing student notification).

Central Oklahoma College does not recognize any fraternities, sororities or other off-campus student clubs or organizations. Hence the College does not have a policy for monitoring and recording criminal activity at such locations.

Central Oklahoma College does not employ professional counselors, psychologists, or pastoral counselors. College staff may assist students and fellow employees in locating such services within the local community. A variety of programs inform students, faculty, and staff about campus security policies and procedures; and various practices have been developed to aid in crime prevention and to encourage responsibility.

In compliance with the Drug and Alcohol Free Schools and Communities Act, the Drug-Free Workplace, and Drug and Alcohol Abuse Prevention regulations, this policy is intended to inform all members of the College community of the College's policy concerning alcohol and other drugs. This policy applies to all students and to all employees (faculty and staff).

ALCOHOL

The abuse or unlawful use, consumption, transportation, offer for sale, manufacture, dispensing, sale, distribution, possession of alcohol, or inappropriate behavior resulting from the use of alcohol is prohibited at all times on the Central Oklahoma College campus and at any sanctioned College activity whether on or off campus.

OTHER DRUGS

The use, possession, or distribution of illegal drugs or drug paraphernalia; unlawful use, possession, or distribution of controlled substances; alteration of a drug prescription; or inappropriate behavior resulting from the use of drugs or other substances is prohibited at all times on the Central Oklahoma College campus and at any sanctioned college activity whether on or off campus. Possession or use of medical marijuana on the College campus is a violation of this policy.

SANCTIONS

Students found to be in violation of this Alcohol and Other Drug Policy will be subject to disciplinary action which may include substance abuse education, warning, probation, suspension, or expulsion from the College itself. Students found in violation of this policy may also be subject to ineligibility for financial assistance.

Employees (including student employees, faculty, and staff), who are found to be in violation of the Alcohol and Other Drug Policy, may be subject to participation in a rehabilitation program, or disciplinary action such as reprimand, suspension, demotion, or termination of employment. Any employee whose act, in violation of the Alcohol and Other Drug Policy, also results in a conviction under a criminal drug statute must report the conviction in writing to his/her supervisor within five days.

Many of the acts that violate this policy also violate the criminal code and may be referred for prosecution. In such cases, law enforcement authorities may administer a separate penalty.

LEGAL SANCTIONS FOR DRUG AND ALCOHOL OFFENSES UNDER APPLICABLE LAWS

Local, state and federal laws provide for a variety of legal sanctions for the unlawful possession and distribution of illicit drugs and alcohol. These sanctions include, but are not limited to, incarceration and monetary fines.

Federal law provides rather severe penalties for distributing or dispensing, or possessing with the intent to distribute or dispense, a (3) controlled substance, and penalties of less severe nature for simple possession of a controlled substance. The type and quantity of the drug in question, all affect the sentence. For example, if less than 50 kilograms of marijuana are involved and it is your first offense (no prior convictions), then you are subject to imprisonment of not more than 5 years, a fine of $250,000, or both. If, however, 50-100 kilograms of marijuana are involved instead of 50, and all other factors are the same as in the preceding example, you are subject to imprisonment of not more than 20 years, unless death or serious injury results from the marijuana use, then you are subject to not less than 20 years or life, a fine of $1,000,000 or both. While the penalties for simple possession are less severe, the first conviction still carries a sentence of up to a year imprisonment, a fine of at least $1,000, but not more than $100,000, or both. With regard to simple possession, the number of convictions makes both the minimum period of imprisonment and fines greater. Under special provisions for possession of crack, a person may be sentenced to a mandatory term of at least 5 years in prison and not more than 20 years, a fine of $250,000, or both.

State law provides similar penalties with regard to the simple possession distribution, or possession with the intent to distribute a controlled dangerous substance. (4) Simple possession of marijuana is a misdemeanor and carries a punishment of up to 1 year in the county jail. A second or subsequent conviction for simple possession of marijuana carries 2 to 10 years in the state penitentiary. Possession of marijuana with the intent to distribute is a felony and carries a punishment of 2 years to life in the penitentiary and a fine of up to $20,000 for the first conviction. A second or subsequent conviction carries a punishment of 4 years to life in prison and a fine of up to $40,000. Depending upon the quantity involved, a convicted individual could be sentenced under the Oklahoma "Trafficking in Illegal Drugs Act" which provides for much harsher penalties. In addition, state law provides that the possession of, or possession with the intent to consume 3.2 beer by someone under 21 years old in a public place, is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $100.00 or by appropriate community service not to exceed 20 hours. Possession of other alcoholic/intoxicating beverages by someone under 21 years old in a public place is a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 30 days, a fine not to exceed $100.00, or both. There are also state laws concerning driving under the influence of alcohol and using a false driver's license to obtain 3.2 beer or alcoholic beverages. Depending upon the number of previous convictions, or gravity of the circumstances, you may be convicted of a felony or misdemeanor for such an offense. It is most likely that you will also forfeit your driving privileges in the event you are convicted of such an offense.

There are also local and State laws similar to those described above. If drugs are involved, the city will, most likely, defer to the state or federal authorities because their penalties are more severe. If alcohol is involved, you may be convicted of violating both local and state law and punished according to both laws. Courts do not excuse individuals convicted of these offenses from a prison sentence to go to college or work. A conviction of such an offense is a serious blemish on your record which could prevent you from entering many careers or obtaining that badly wanted job.

Further information regarding these local, state, and federal laws may be found in Student Services and is available to students and employees. Students and employees are encouraged to review this information. The above referenced examples of penalties and sanctions are based upon the relevant laws at the time of adoption of this policy statement. Such laws are, of course, subject to revision or amendment by way of the legislative process.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICY

Central Oklahoma College is concerned about the safety of its students, instructors and staff. With regard to sexual assault, good sense safety practices are your best defense. There are sufficient instructors, staff, and students present in the building at all times during business hours to make a sexual assault on campus unlikely, but not impossible. Remember to remain aware of your surroundings, do not walk alone outdoors (especially at night), do not enter areas of the building to which you are not authorized, and do not feel compelled to enter any secluded location or any situation which makes you uncomfortable.

Whether an assault occurs on- or off-campus, victims are strongly encouraged to report sexual assaults to the appropriate authorities. It is important to preserve evidence whenever possible for the police to use in pursuing a criminal investigation. In the unlikely event that a sexual assault occurs on campus, students should immediately notify their department Program Director or any available staff or instructor they are comfortable confiding in. Upon being notified, College personnel will notify the Title IX Coordinator and will assist the student in contacting the appropriate authorities if the alleged victim chooses to do so. College personnel will, to the best of their ability, attempt to secure any affected area of the campus and to otherwise prevent the compromise of evidence until law enforcement officials arrive. If a sexual assault occurs to a student off-campus, the College will assist an alleged victim with notification to the appropriate law enforcement agency having police jurisdiction where the crime occurred (upon request of the student).

Central Oklahoma College does not provide counseling services directly to victims of sexual assault, but will attempt to provide referral to local agencies that provide counseling and other support services.
